WHAT'S OLD IS NEW AGAIN, AS BEAUTY BRANDS BRING BACK '80S NEON AND '70S POP ART

In the past few years, neon – the trend that defined the '80s – has crept back into the mainstream, in the form of everything from T-shirts to shoes and bags. In 2010, the hottest way to wear fluoro is on your face.

To give your look a punk edge, sweep the brightest shades you can find, such as those in the BYS 5 Piece Eyeshadow in Mod Brights, $5.95 (below), across your eyelids, or highlight the inner corners of the eyes with a BYS Eyeliner Pencil, $4.95, to accent a smoky eye.

If you prefer a more subtle approach, apply a pop pink blush high on your cheekbones. Try Estée Lauder Michael Kors Very Hollywood Blush in Sunset Pink, $58.

Alternatively, tap into this beauty trend with one of the many products that have been given a retro-inspired packaging makeover.

Diesel Only the Brave Special Artoyz Edition EDT, $115 (75ml).

Estée Lauder Michael Kors Very Hollywood Blush in Sunset Pink, $58.

DKNY Be Delicious Fresh Blossom Art EDP, $105 (50ml).

Elizabeth Arden Eight Hour Cream Skin Protectant, $35.

BYS 5 Piece Eyeshadow in Mod Brights, $5.95; and Neon Eyeliner Pencils, $4.95 each.

TRIED & TESTED CONCEALERS

CREAM Bourjois Paris Healthy Mix Correcting Concealer, $24, has a light texture and gives a high level of coverage. BRUSH The pen-style applicator in Bobbi Brown Tinted Eye Brightener, $69, delivers just the right amount of product, while the peach tint neutralises dark under-eye circles. STICK Physicians Formula Gentle Cover Concealer Stick, $14.95, is a creamy formulation that glides over the skin to cover blemishes and under-eye circles. Set with translucent powder to avoid creasing.

WHAT I'M LOVING RIGHT NOW...
Erin McNaught, MTV

Label M Resurrection Style Dust, $46.95 (pictured). "After washing my hair, I comb this from the roots to the midlengths to add structure and texture." Aveda Dry Remedy Moisturizing Treatment Masque, $64.95 (125ml). "My hair is very dry and brittle. This restores it to a healthy-looking state." Nivea Visage Anti-Wrinkle Q10plus Day Care SPF15, $19.95. "This lightweight moisturiser keeps my skin hydrated in summer."

FAB FIND

The titanium infused plates of the Silver Bullet Straightener in Zebra, $179.95, smooth the unruliest locks. Plus, it comes with a bonus Mini Mook Straightener.

STAR BUY
Moroccanoil Dry Oil Treatment, $49.95 (100ml), is all the rage in L.A., with Taylor Swift among its luscious-locked fans. The frizz controller works best on fine hair.
