Kelly Baker indulges in flawless foundation, must-have make-up palettes and lush lashes, and spends five minutes with top hair stylist, Caterina DiBiase.

This month, I'm mad for ...

Nivea Calm & Care Deodorant, $3.79. Thanks to special soothing ingredients, this sweet-smelling anti-perspirant rolls on easily, no matter how sensitive your skin.

Laura Mercier Secret Concealer, $45. Soft and creamy, this concealer hides spots, blemishes and flaws in a flash. Not that you have any!

Olay Total Effects 7-In-1 Anti-Ageing Cream, $32.49. A winner in the Australian Beauty Awards Reader Vote Anti-ageing category, this cream is now 10 years old, but it just keeps getting better.

Lancôme Blush Multi Lumière in Rosy Glow, $69. Use the deeper shade as a blush and the lighter shade to highlight, or just whip it out when you need a cheer-up.

Clarins Cotton Flower Face Palette, $59. This compact powder provides a glowing, natural-looking complexion and the palette itself is pretty as a picture.

M.A.C Mineralize Eye Shadow in Blue My Mind, $40. This trio of beautiful, iridescent blues creates the perfect smoky eye.

Silver Bullet Chocolat Hair Straightener, $179.95. This quality straightener does a great job, looks fabulous and, best of all, comes with a miniature handbag-sized version (pictured here), perfect for fringes and stubborn frizz.

Revlon ColourStay Ultimate Lipcolor in Premium Pink, $26.95. This shimmering lip gloss is subtly flattering, providing just the right amount of shine.
